Pastor's Letter

Dear Parishioners,

Many people make New Year's resolutions. Decisions, commitments or hopes to form new habits or to achieve some goal in their lives abound. The day that we start the New Year is a good day to begin. With January 1 a new calendar year gets under way. It is a good day for newness in other areas of our lives also. But sadly all too often our resolutions go by the wayside and at times we hear people say, "I don't make resolutions any more, I never keep them."

When we find ourselves not reaching our goals it may be time for a new approach. In this new year I took the liberty to make up a new word. You won't find it in the dictionary. But it will hopefully help us with making the best resolutions possible. The word is spesolution. (The red underline of a misspelt word just came up on my computer screen.) It is like a resolution but it is *SP*ecifically *SP*iritual. The word spes in Latin means hope.

So a spesolution may be (some examples)

- 1) A decision to put God first in my life (knowing Him as Lord and savior).
- 2) A commitment, to be at Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation (or to be there early or to prepare by reading at least one of the readings).
- 3) A hope, possibly for more peace and joy in my life. In making spesolutions we will form new habits.

Since spesolutions are truly spiritual we ought to ask God for help in living them out. If (when) we fail there is the strength of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Let us also look to the example of others who are committed to living their faith and find in them encouraging examples.

Again, Happy New Year Everyone! May following Jesus who is the way, the truth, and the life, mean better lives for us now. A *SP*esolution can make all the difference.
