From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

There are two journeys in our readings today from Isaiah and St. Mark. Abraham and Isaac set out for a high place, and, Peter, James and John are led by Jesus to a mountain. Both journeys offer a new revelation about God. Both required faithfulness.

Every year we face the same Lenten journey, walk the same way of the cross, and listen to the same readings. We participate in the same rites with catechumens and candidates. When we begin the season with ashes, we fully plan to make this the Lent where we will pay attention to the conversion to which the Church and the Gospel calls us. We don't mean for time to slip away – yet days fly by. We have the best intentions – and still we may arrive at Easter without the transformation we intended to have.

Let us not get complacent.

We begin a NEW journey this Lenten season, to awaken us to what we ignore and neglect. Lent, like any other journey, can take unexpected turns or offer surprise endings. We know that it led Jesus to Calvary and the cross. Our journey can lead us to reform our lives and return our hearts to God.

Let us move forward.

Happy Lent,

Father Ed
