From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today we heard one of the most colorful gospels pages from Saint John. The image of the Temple filled with crowds, moneychangers, animals and birds for sacrifice was an assault on the senses: the sight of cages and holding pens; the sounds of bleating, flapping wings and shouting voices; the smells of manure, urine and smoke. It was also a place where the complicity between Roman Taxes, priestly corruption and caste divisions was a visible mockery of everything the Temple stood for.

Jesus was enraged to find the sacred Temple reduced to a marketplace for sacrificial animals. He was filled with zeal for justice and true worship. With both feet planted firmly on the ground of righteousness, Jesus could take it no more. He approached the vendors and moneychangers. He tipped over their tables, spilling coins everywhere. Wielding his whip of cords, he drove them out of the Temple area.

Lent charges into our lives once a year, overturning our tables. Lent challenges us to think about our interests, our passions and our Transgressions. Lent reminds us that there are troubles "temple precincts" in our own lives. Lent ask us to examine the way we live and The integrity of our relationship with God. During Lent we uncover obstacles which keep us from living our faith. Jesus asks us "What's this doing in your life? Get it out; it's blocking your path to me." Then Jesus will hand us his whip of cords, allowing us to use it to drive the obstacles away.
