From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

The first words out of Jesus' mouth when he appears to his disciples are "Peace be with you." This shalom is the greeting Jesus had taught the disciples to say whenever they entered a house. These are the words that he has spoken over and over during his public life, as peace is the heart of the message. This greeting epitomizes what all the followers of Christ are to live by. Gathered as they were, listening to the report of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, the disciples are startled and indeed terrified when Jesus suddenly appeared in their midst. Once he showed them proof that he was Jesus, the terror of the disciples turned to incredulous joy. In this apparition, Jesus does three things that were integral to his life: he greeted them with peace, he once again shared a meal, and he taught them.

Too often, we have difficulty discovering the presence of Jesus in our lives. The distractions of the world blind us to what is before us. We don't have the time to look. May our prayer be that God lift our blindness and open our eyes so that we might discover Jesus right there before us.

Finally, I thank all who participated in my Installation as Pastor last Sunday. My family and friends all commented on our beautiful Church and your warmth and friendliness. You are certainly a 'welcoming church.'

Sincerely,

Father Ed
