From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate the great mystery we acknowledge every time we make the sign of the cross: the Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. On Trinity Sunday, we are invited to share in the love and the unity that unites the three in one and to extend that life to others in the world. Perhaps we could focus on the conclusion of the opening prayer of Mass, which occurs in the same form most Sundays: “Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Our communal prayer is addressed to the Father, through the Son and in unity of the Holy Spirit. Though the first meaning of that focuses on the Trinity itself and reminds us that theologians describe the Spirit as the love that unites the three in one, it also reminds us that we live and pray in the same unity. One principal gift of the Spirit is to unite us as one body in Christ so that we can pray through Christ to the Father.

May our prayer be that Our Lord will open our hearts to the gift of this Life and help us to live each day filled with wonder and awe and gratitude.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
