From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Among the mystics of past ages, it was not uncommon for God's Holy Spirit to be referred to as God's kiss. Therefore, it could be said that on this feast of Pentecost, we celebrate the grace of being filled with the Spirit and, thereby, of being kissed by God.

As St. Paul tells us in his first letter to the Corinthians, God's kiss enables the one kissed to profess faith in Jesus as Lord. That same Spirit kisses each member of the community and endows them with gifts. These gifts are meant to complement one another and to work in concert for the common good. The kiss of God who is the Spirit also enables a community of diverse people with varying backgrounds, desires and concerns to maintain an authentic unity among themselves, so that community is perceived as one integral body in Christ. Celebrating such unity of the feast of the Spirit is a blessing—and also confronts us with a challenge. Pentecost prompts us to examine whether or not our unity is true or even possible.

The following story may be a helpful way to illustrate the capacity of the Spirit for knowing our weaknesses, for loving us in spite of them and for using those same weaknesses to reveal the generous love of God through us. A young wife and mother suffered a severe stroke and was left paralyzed on one side and confined to a wheelchair. Even after she underwent intensive physical therapy, the effects of the stroke were still in evidence, especially in the crooked little grimace that had replaced her once beautiful and gentle smile. In order to show her that his love for her had not changed, her husband knelt down beside her wheelchair and contorted his own mouth in order to fit his lips to hers. "You see," he said, "we still fit!" Like this loving husband, the Holy Spirit, whose presence we celebrate today, shapes its power to our crookedness so that even in our weakness, we can be worthy witnesses of God's universal love and the good news of salvation to all humankind.

Happy Birthday Church.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

A NOTE FROM JACK RYAN

Dear Parishioners,

Our last day of Adoration before our summer hiatus will be Friday, May 25th. We will return from our hiatus on September 7th.

I am sorry to announce that I will be retiring from both the Adoration team and the Eucharistic Minister team. It's been wonderful working with each and every one of you and I thank you all for your service.

The Good News is that Amy Rivera will be taking over my responsibilities. She is a wonderful person and will be a great leader as she is always helpful. Good Luck to all of you and God Bless!

Sincerely,

Jack Ryan

P.S. I WASN'T FIRED! I'M RELOCATING! 😊
