Sing praise to the LORD, you faithful;

My dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus healed two women, both of whom were ritually unclean. Jesus doesn't heal them from a distance, as he most certainly could have done. Instead, he touches them. As we pray today, let us ask Jesus for the healing we need, and for the grace to reach out to others as the hands and the heart of Jesus on this earth.

In the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults we read: "While Jesus sometimes simply spoke some words to accomplish a healing, he often touched the afflicted person to bring about the cure. In the Church's Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment." (USCCA, 251)

Today, after the homily, I will celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick with our faith community. The entire congregation is invited to receive this "healing Sacrament" today.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
