My dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis often says, "If we pray to a God who doesn't surprise us, we are praying to the wrong God." Today we are worshipping the right God who astonishes and surprises. He astonishes his disciples by taking ordinary food—bread and fish— from an ordinary, young boy and amazes everyone by telling his disciples to begin feeding the large crowd.

They do, and at the end of the meal, there is an abundance of leftovers. And Jesus did all these things in a peaceful, simple and ordinary way. He moved with faith and trust in his father to make it all happen. The results were astounding. Christ teaches this message to all his followers. If they hope to accomplish things in life, they need faith and trust in God. It is the primary lesson he wants his disciples to learn. If they acquire this lesson first, then they easily can teach others to do the same.

Elisha faces a similar challenge. He was given 20 loaves, and he gave them to his servant to distribute to 100 people. Elisha shows his faith and trust by asking his disbelieving servant to feed the hungry people waiting. In sending his servant, Elisha gives the power of his deep faith and trust in God to his servant to act in his name. His servant does, and he is astonished that there are leftovers. The task, faced as overwhelming, is resolved with God's help.

In life, we believers face difficult challenges and tasks. We may have faith and trust in God, but still, doubts may exist. However, when we rise up, do our best and trust in God, we often achieve more than we thought possible. This is the power of faith, giving us the ability to trust that God will get us through whatever is before us. Often the Lord answers our prayers by coaxing his followers the power that comes from faith.

When God sees belief, God provides.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
