From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Once again, the readings today focus our attention on the bread and wine we use in celebrating the Eucharist. In the first reading, Wisdom invites us to come and eat of her food and drink of the wine she has mixed. The psalm exhorts us to “taste and see the goodness of the Lord.” In Saint John’s Gospel, Jesus insists that unless we “eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood,” we will not have life within us. “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food , and my flesh is true drink.”

The difference between the Bread of Life that Jesus gives us and ordinary bread is beyond comparison. When we eat other bread, that bread becomes a part of us. It enters our body and changes into us. But when we eat the Bread of Life, just the opposite happens. It doesn’t change into us; we change into it. It transforms us into what it is: the Body of Christ. And this is why, if we eat it, we will live forever. By eating the Body of Christ, we are transformed into Christ, who will live forever.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever”

JOHN 6:51
