My dear Parishioners,

The Pharisees were right about one thing. Jesus and the disciples should have washed their hands before eating. Over the past several years, many cruise ships were alarmed to find that hundreds of their passengers were suffering from gastrointestinal illness. In some ships, more than ten percent of the crew and passengers were sick. Doctors urge frequent hand washing to prevent further outbreaks. Today most ships have hand sanitizers at the entrances to their restaurants.

Jesus was right in pointing out that it is what comes out of us that really makes us unclean. No amount of hand washing can cleanse an evil heart.

Instead of laying heavy burdens on others, Jesus offered teachings that freed rather than constrained people. He assured the “regular folks” that purity and holiness are not achieved with soap and water but through faithful responsiveness to the overtures of God, who calls forth the best in everyone. Just as holiness originates from within, defilement and sin grow within a heart that is turned away from God.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
