Don't forget to VOTE this coming Tuesday.
May I remind you:

- The decisions we make on Tuesday are moral decisions.
- We are baptized people whose responsibility is to the poor, the weak, the children, the future of the planet.
- Day by day, we American citizens are making life harder and shorter for so much of the world and perhaps impossible for generations that would follow us.

“We must always walk in the presence of the Lord, in the light of the Lord, always trying to live in an irreprehensible way.”

Pope Francis

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

In the gospel today, we once again hear the great commandment: “Therefore you shall love the Lord God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.” “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

We’ve heard this. It’s kind of vague, isn’t it? Or maybe, like, impossible?

Mother Teresa was often and justifiably considered in her time as a living saint with seemingly near perfect love of God and neighbor. Unfortunately, this may have led to MTCS—the Mother Teresa Comparison Syndrome: “I’m not like Mother Teresa, so there’s no way I can . . .”

MTCS seems to explain and even justify being lukewarm Christians.

Are you afflicted with MTCS? If somehow you could know the percentage of your heart, soul, mind, and strength with which you love God, would you want to know? If you measured 50 percent, would you be satisfied (maybe even relieved?) At what point would be dissatisfied?

Love YOUR neighbor
as yourself.
MATTHEW 22:39

The Great Commandments were for ALL. Our falling short of perfection does not mean it’s futile to keep trying, we don’t in other areas. Ordinary things done well: Consistently doing “the next right thing” goes a long way toward loving God and neighbor with whole heart. Pray for discernment: “Show me what to do.”

Our Jewish brothers named the great Commandment the Sh’ma Yisrael (“Hear, O, Israel”) and prayed it every morning and evening.

I say “Hear, O, Queen Village.”

Sincerely,

Father Ed
