My dear Parishioners,

A sign in a Chinese pet store read: “Buy one dog, get one flea.” The word “flea” could have been a phonetic error. The storeowner may have meant to say, “Buy one dog, get one free.” But it also could have been a warning label. Some dogs do come with fleas included. The story can remind us of the teaching in today’s gospel. Sell everything you have and give the money to the poor. . . Mark 10:21.

If we want to enter the kingdom, we have to be willing to pay the full price - and some unwanted “fleas” are included in that price. The easy price is showing up at Mass on Sunday and pretty much following the Ten Commandments. But that’s only part of our entry fee into the Kingdom.

The real price, the hard part, is the one the rich man couldn’t pay. He couldn’t sell everything and give the money to the poor. He couldn’t really pledge his treasure, much less his time and talent. He only wanted to pay the easy part, buying just the “dog.” But dog the dog includes the hard part, the “unwanted fleas” that are attached. That’s the part we all must deal with. Jesus calls us to declare our worthiness by asking ourselves “Is my faith real? Is my faith strong enough to abandon everything and place myself into the hands of Jesus?”

Sincerely,

Father Ed

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A) is a process of welcoming new members into the Catholic Church. It also welcomes baptized Adult Catholics who have not received Sacraments of Reconciliation, Eucharist, or Confirmation. If you are an Adult and interested in becoming a Catholic OR an Adult who has not received the Sacraments of Reconciliation, Eucharist, or Confirmation you are welcome here at Saint Philip Neri Parish.

Please call the rectory at 215-468-1922 or email us at stphilipneri@comcast.net if you are interested.

WITAMY!

Welcome Pulaski Parade Participants

Children's Corner

As we did last year, we are gathering all children together after the 11:00 a/m. Mass for a short hands on lesson on how much Jesus loves them. The specific theme will follow the Sunday Gospel message.

We will begin our Children's Corner today, September 16. We ask that you bring your children to the room adjoining the chapel. The plan is to offer this faith formation every week.

Because feeding the stomach is as important as feeding the soul, we are offering a Children's CAM at the same time. Children can bring their snack to the table.

We hope that we see you there and if you have any questions, please call Maryellen at 267-210-1258.

Thank You Sister Mary Ellen

We thank Sister Mary Ellen for making the transition easier over these past few months. We thank her for her dedication and work with Small Groups. We thank her for her joyful spirit. Sister's last day is Friday, Oct. 19. We will miss her and give her our best wishes in her new parish, Our Lady of Grace in Penndel. They are very fortunate to have her. God bless you Sister!

We also need Help around the Church (including snow shoveling, altar linens, watering flowers, etc. etc.) and other Odd Jobs as needed. No job is too small. Even changing a light bulb would help! Please contact the Rectory if you can volunteer.
