From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today the first reading from the Prophet Daniel reminds us of one of the most important aspects of the end of time— the blessing of immortality and eternal union with God. Notice that, in the ancient author's vision, both the wicked and the just will be raised up to life. For their part, the wicked shall reap the everlasting harvest of horror and disgrace that their evil ways have sown. The just, on the other hand, will shine like the stars forever. These just ones were people whose faith inspired others to lead good lives; these are the ones "who lead the many to Justice."

Saint Oscar Romero, Archbishop of El Salvador, was one of these just ones whose valiant dedication to securing the rights and freedom of others made him a shining light in our midst. Martyred for his beliefs on March 10, 1980, Romero now shines like the stars forever. On the very day he was assassinated, Romero spoke about his death and his belief in everlasting life. "I have often been threatened with death...as a Christian I don't believe in death without resurrection. If they kill me, I will rise again in the Salvadoran people...I give my life for those I love and even for those who are going to kill me...Even now I offer my blood to God for the redemption and resurrection of El Salvador...If God accepts the sacrifice of my life, may my blood be the seed of liberty and the sign that hope may soon become a reality." (from The Violence of Love)

Like Romero and all those other just ones now shining like the stars forever, believers in Jesus and in the good news of salvation are called to give their lives so that God's justice may prevail. We may not be called to bleed, but we are called to pour out our energies without reservation. Then, when the time of our departure from this life arrives— a time no one knows except God— we shall be prepared to shine with all the just ones forever.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

Saint Oscar Romero is one of the seven saints canonized on October 14, 2018.

PARISH CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Our Parish Christmas Bazaar is quickly approaching and we need some volunteers for donations, baking and creativeness. If you are interested in helping out in any way here are suggestions.

Donations of new/gently used items. These items can be anything from a small appliance, toys, household or decorative item. Please have these donations in by November 25.

Get your creative juices flowing by making a themed basket for our basket raffle. These baskets are put together by parishioners and in the past have consisted of all types of themes such as: Movie Basket; Italian dinner basket; Cookie/Cake making basket, Winter Wonderland basket, etc. A basket doesn't even need to be used, just use your imagination.

As always the weekend of the bazaar we will also be asking for our wonderful bakers to turn on those ovens and make your specialties for our baked goods table.

These items can all be dropped off at either church after the masses or at the rectory. If you have any questions or you need an item picked up from your home please contact Ann at apurul1@verizon.net. Thank you for your generosity to the parish.

PLEASE LEAVE ALL ITEMS AT EITHER CHURCH AND MARK IT FOR "BAZAAR."
THANK YOU.

SEMINARY APPEAL THANK YOU FROM TUCKER BROWN

Fellow Parishioners,
