COMING IN JANUARY:

Bishop Robert Barron's THE MASS

Walk through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron and you'll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

More information will follow.....

If you are homebound or know someone who is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the Rectory at 215-468-1922 or email us at stphilipneri@comcast.net

My dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. They are certainly not an ordinary family. Jesus is the Son of God as well as of Mary. Joseph is his foster father. Mary was “full of grace” - sinless. While married to Joseph, our tradition tells us that Mary remained a virgin.

None of our families can be exactly like the Holy Family in many ways. We can look at the similarities between their struggles and ours.

The Good News today is that we already belong to the holiest of families—God’s family. The second reading tells us that we are God’s children now! The original Holy Family is the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit—a love relationship from and for all eternity. Right now, in this church, we are a church family, united by the Holy Spirit, sharing the one Christ makes us holy—that makes us family.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
