HOLY MASS BAPTISM OF THE LORD

“The dialect of children! And Jesus advises us to be like them, to speak like them. We must not forget this language of children, who speak how they are able, but it is the language that is so pleasing to Jesus. And, in your prayers, be simple like them. Tell Jesus what comes into your heart, as they do.”

Pope Francis

See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.*

Sign Up Sheets at entrance to Church.

If you are homebound or know someone who is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the Rectory at 215-468-1922 or email us at stphilipneri@comcast.net

My dear Parishioners,

On this day when we remember the Baptism of our Lord Jesus, it is fitting that we also remember our own baptism. The promise that we made on that day - or that was made for us by those who loved us - was to follow Jesus wherever he leads us. We don't know the road, but we know the destination because we know the Guide. As we renew our baptismal promises, let us pray that we, too, will hear the voice of God proclaim about us, "This is my beloved in whom I am well pleased."

Over the past weeks, whether at our Christmas liturgies, or a funeral, we have had many visitors (or former parishioners) in our Church; many have commented on our beautiful Church. Let us continue to be a 'welcoming community' to all who enter our doors.

Today we conclude our celebration of the Christmas season and I thank you again for all your kindnesses over the past few weeks.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
