ENCOUNTERING
HEAVEN ON EARTH

Bishop Robert Barron’s THE MASS

CONTINUES JANUARY 30, 2019
WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT 7:00 P.M.
ST. PHILIP NERI CHURCH

Walk through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron and you’ll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

If you are homebound or know someone who is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the Rectory at 215-468-1922 or email us at stphilipneri@comcast.net

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today's readings show us two scenes in which the scriptures are being read publicly. The first is when Ezra the priest reads the Torah to the people. The proclamation of the law became an occasion of great sorrow as the people reflected on their failure to keep the covenant, which was seen as leading to their long exile in Babylon.

The second scene takes place in the synagogue in Nazareth, when Jesus comes home to inaugurate his ministry by reading from the scroll of Isaiah. The famous passage Jesus reads goes to the very heart of the covenant: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor."

We are the third audience for this powerful challenge coming to us today from the Word of God. Jesus himself is now speaking to us in our assembly: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon you. You have been anointed to bring good news to the poor...to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

Why is this reading about us? In today's 2nd reading, St. Paul reminds us that we are the body of Jesus now present in the world. His ministry of preaching, healing, mercy and liberation is now taking place through us.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
