Holy Thursday 4.18.19

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Somebody once observed that there are two kinds of people in the world. There are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good morning, Lord," and those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good Lord, it's morning!"

A very special kind of morning greeting was spoken by the disciples who had been fishing through the night. The sun was just rising, splashing the lake with golden light as they drifted near the shore at Tiberias. When Jesus called out to them from the shore, it was John who recognized him and exclaimed to Peter, "It is the Lord!"

Jesus calls from the shoreline to each of us, as well. Our hope is to recognize him in our daily lives and truly follow him. For all of us there will one day be another morning when we wake to new life. When we open our eyes to that new day, let us pray that we can say those joyous words of John, "It is the Lord!"

Sincerely,

Father Ed
