From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today is often called Good Shepherd Sunday, for today we hear a gospel passage about Jesus the Shepherd. The reality is that we are called to be both sheep and shepherd. The Apostles are numbered among the flock given to Christ by his Father, but they are also shepherds, gathering and protecting the flock. It is the same for every Christian. Even as we are shepherded, we are, each in his or her way, also called to shepherd others. Parents, pastors, teachers, supervisors: we are responsible for each other. The way we lead others reflects our faith in the one who leads us, the Good Shepherd. Meditate on the image of Christ as the Good Shepherd, carrying a lamb on his shoulders. “The secret of everything,” said St. John XXIII, “is to let oneself be carried by the Lord, and so to carry him to others.”

As the Shepherd of St. Philip Neri, I thank all who came forward to help plan and participate in our annual Forty Hours Devotion yesterday. We look forward to continuing what we began yesterday. We need to shepherd one another by personally inviting our neighbors and parishioners.

I congratulate all Mothers, who are the most important Shepherds in our midst, and offer my prayers and blessings today.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
