“The Eucharist is simple food, like bread, yet it is the only food that satisfies, for there is no greater love. There we encounter Jesus really; we share his life and we feel his love.”

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate another “idea feast”, but it is an easier one to celebrate, because the Eucharist is the center of our life as a church. This feast developed in the Middle Ages during a time when extreme emphases were placed on the physical presence of Christ in the host. For many people, the words “Corpus Christi” summon up images of benediction and processions with the host in the monstrance. Today this feast points us to the celebration of the Eucharist more than a procession with the reserved sacrament. The Solemnity now called “The Body and Blood of Christ” focuses our attention on our sharing of the supper of the Lord.

We celebrate the fact that Jesus Christ gives himself as bread and wine. In every Mass, the presider repeats the words of Christ, “Take this all of you, and eat it...take this, all of you, and drink of it.” It is time that we pay attention to what we are saying; Christ clearly intended us to eat and drink. On this special day, I invite all present to think about the meaning of the symbol and the richness of the gift Christ has given us. I invite you to consider partaking of BOTH the Body and the Blood of Jesus Christ today.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
