Event: PADRE PIO FESTIVAL

Join us for a weekend of prayer and worship along with music and fun festivities for the whole family in honor of one of the Church's most powerful saints, Padre Pio!

Location: St. Bede the Venerable Parish, Holland, PA
More info: <https://padrepiofestivalhollandpa.com>.

My dear Parishioners,

Fifty years ago this September I entered St. Charles Seminary; I had just turned 18 years old. Some would say that I was too young, immature or naïve. I guess I was! What I do know is a deeper truth; I followed my heart, and that heart was responding to the Spirit. Begun in 1969, this journey has been rich, full of twists and turns, ups and downs, with times of tremendous letting go, only to be caught up in the marvelous mystery of divine love that has taken my ordinary life and made it extraordinary. At the same time, this journey is grounded in the knowledge that I am and always will be an ordinary person on the road of life, traveling alongside everyone else as we make our way in this world together.

Multiple people in today's readings are faced with a choice—do they want to follow God's will in a more radical way turning away from old attachments and possessions, or do they want to serve 'the flesh,' remaining stuck in their past lives?

Imagine going about daily, mundane tasks and then suddenly having your life turned upside down in an instant? Well, this imaginary setting becomes the lived reality for Elisha. What a surprise Elisha received while he was out plowing the fields with his oxen. An ordinary day turned into an extraordinary one. He was anointed a prophet and immediately, he was ushered into a way of life that would bring many challenges.

In today's gospel, the brothers James and John, perturbed that they had not been treated hospitably are angry and want vengeance. With Jesus' guidance, and by his example, they lived to become exemplary ministers of the gospel. Along with the Zebedee brothers, St. Luke introduces us to some other potential ministers who offered a variety of reasons as to why Jesus' call to ministry was inconvenient. In examining their excuses and Jesus' response to them, each of us is given cause to consider whether the alibis we offer to escape responsible ministry has any merit.

The choice isn't easy, and not even God can make it for us. But remembering, as Psalm 16 proclaims, that God is "the path to life", offering "fullness of joys," can help us choose wisely.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
