Please contact Mrs. Patricia Cody, Principal for more info.

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Father Oliver left the United States on Tuesday to continue his vacation in England. Behind the scene, Father was a big help, most mornings he celebrated the morning Mass. I usually celebrate Mass at the St. Monica Center at 10:50 each day, so with him helping out, I have some extra morning time to pray and organize my day.

If Father Oliver were preaching today, he would certainly echo Saint Paul in his letter to the Hebrews: “persevere in running the race that lies before us.” We are told today so simply and so directly, to “keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith.”

As our leader, Jesus has gone before us, setting the pace as well as the course by his passion and death on the cross. Because of his endurance and fidelity, he now sits in glory at God’s right hand. Through Baptism, believers now run the same course as Jesus and share in his victory forever.

In the final verse of this text, readers are reminded that just as Jesus faced opposition for his efforts, so will they. In fact, the intended first-century recipients of this letter were already facing persecution from Roman as well as Jewish circles. St. Paul continues: “you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood.”

Today, we are reminded of the cost of Christian faith. Our salvation cost the life of the Son of God. A heritage like that is not something a person can hand down tarnished. The demand for every Christian is: Show yourselves worthy of the sacrifice that has been made for you by Jesus and all the many martyrs who lived and died for him.

Over the next weeks, St. Paul will continue to stress the importance of faith and discipline in the life of the believer. Whoever said it would be easy?

Sincerely,

Father Ed
