Spiritual Support for Addiction: Hope in Christ

Seeking spiritual support in the journey towards recovery? Many parishes around the Archdiocese are extending God’s merciful and loving hand to those who have an addiction as well as their families and loved ones. The Hope in Christ: Spiritual Support for Addiction webpage provides a central location for resources, ongoing support, events, and testimonies that are happening throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Visit Archphila.org/hope for new postings for Catholic resources available to you or a loved one.

FEAST OF ST. MONICA—AUGUST 27

St. Monica (332-387)

A Christian in North Africa, she married and bore three children. Through her example, her husband, Patricius, became a Christian, and she prayed for the conversion of her son Augustine, who had abandoned his Christian faith for Manichaeism. When Augustine went to Italy, Monica met him in Milan, where he had met Bishop Ambrose and been baptized. She died during their return trip to Africa, saying all her hopes had been fulfilled.

May we also never give up encouraging the spiritual journeys of those we love.

*-taken from LIVING WITH CHRIST
August 2019*

My dear Parishioners,

In the Gospel for today, Jesus is asked a question that has been asked through the centuries: “will only a few people be saved?” But Jesus will not play the numbers game. Instead, he speaks directly to those who question him: “Strive to enter through the narrow gate.” It is not enough to know who Jesus is, nor even to eat and drink with him. It is not enough to be among the Chosen People, the descendants of “Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.” Only those who pass by the narrow gate will have a place in the Kingdom. But many find the way, for at the end of the reading, Jesus speaks of how many people from every place will join the prophets and the righteous at the banquet table of God. And what is the narrow gate? The verse before the Gospel provides the answer: “I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me.”

Let us take a moment this week to stop and enjoy these last days of August.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

Fourth Annual Padre Pio Festival St. Bede the Venerable Parish Sept. 14, 15, 2019

The priests and the parishioners of Saint Bede the Venerable Church, located in Holland, Pennsylvania (Bucks County, Northampton Township), welcomes all to its Fourth Annual Mass and Festival to honor St. Pio of Pietrelcina, better known as "Padre Pio," on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 14 and 15. The two-day event will be highlighted by Saturday Vigil Mass and Sunday 12:30pm Mass celebrated by Fr. Pio Mandato, followed by a street procession with a statue of Padre Pio through the surrounding neighborhood. The festivities continue with a healing service with confessions, a children's pavilion, musical entertainment and several specialty food and craft vendors. Plenty of free parking is available, pilgrim buses are welcome. For more information, go online to padrepiofestivalhollandpa.com, or call the St. Bede parish office at 215-357-5720.
