I respectfully request that you consider sponsoring the cost of tuition for a child attending Our Lady of Hope School with a full or partial sponsorship. If this is something that you might be interested in; please feel free to contact Ms. Patricia Cody, Principal, Our Lady of Hope School at (215467-5385 or at info.ourladyofhopephilly.com to discuss this possibility in more detail.

Memorial Scholarships are now being accepted for the 2019-20 school year. Consider providing a $330 Full Scholarship or $150 Partial Scholarship in Memory of a deceased loved one. Scholarships can also be named for former alumni, faculty, or administrators of the legacy schools. These scholarships are provided to families in need of help to offset the cost of tuition. Please contact Mrs. Patricia Cody, Principal for more info.

My dear Parishioners,

As I thought about the scripture readings for today, I was reminded of a story, which I share with you. An American tourist, traveling in Europe, visited a wise and famous rabbi who lived there. The American was surprised how simply the man lived—in a single room with a table and chair and a number of books. “Rabbi! Where is your furniture?” asked the tourist. “Well, where is yours?” the rabbi asked. The American tourist answered, “My furniture? I’m just passing through here.” The wise rabbi responded: “Although I’ve lived here my entire life, so am I!”

We don’t like to be reminded how fragile our life is, that it can be taken from us anytime. We like the illusion of being in control. Jesus is really doing us a favor when he reminds us that our life in this world is only temporary, and eternity is forever. Jesus is doing us a favor reminding us of this because he’s keeping us in reality. The things of this world are only of secondary importance and we must use them as the way to him and not allow them to be central in our life.

What can we do to deepen our attitude of stewardship?

Sincerely,

Father Ed
