Be Baptized and Sent—on Mission in the World! Today, World Mission Sunday, in this Extraordinary Missionary Month, we are called to personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in the Church, and to offer, through this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.

“Human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships: with God, with our neighbor, and with the earth itself.”

Parish Christmas Bazaar
St. Stanislaus Hall
Sunday, December 8

My dear Parishioners,

“Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learn it.” These words we hear in today’s second reading are addressed to St. Timothy, who was St. Paul’s co-worker. From whom did you learn the Catholic faith? Whether from your parents, your teachers or a preacher, in a sense they were all missionaries. God sent them to you and others, and they brought words and deeds of faith along with them so that you might believe.

The earliest Christian missionaries did the same. If the apostles had remained in Jerusalem, the good news of Jesus Christ would never have been preached in Greece or Rome or Europe. That means that our ancestors, and we ourselves, might never have received the gospel of Christ. We would not have the Christian faith to be faithful to or share with others.

Today is World Mission Sunday. It is a day of prayer and financial sacrifice for the gift of faith we have received, and for the God-given mission of calling others to faith in Jesus Christ.

You will notice that there are two “I”s in the word “mission.” The first “I” may be said to stand for Jesus Christ. He is the beginning and the end of all missionary efforts in his name. Without him, we can do nothing; but with him, all things are possible. Just as Jesus Christ was sent from the Father for our salvation, so now he sends women and men to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.

The second “I” in the word “mission” stands for us. For without our commitment of prayer and financial contributions, the Christian mission to the world simply won’t exist. The “I” of our individual commitment brings strength and power to the efforts of the Christian missionaries. Their preaching of risen life with Christ in the world to come has always been joined to their seeking to improve the quality of human life in the world. To do that, missionaries need our prayers and financial contributions.

Today, please pray for all missionaries and for the people they serve, and give generously to support their work for body, mind, soul and spirit.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY Today our parish celebrates World Mission Sunday. This year we welcome Servants of the Lord and the Virgin Matara-SSVM Missions who will speak to us at all Masses. Please give them a warm welcome.
