"On the feast of All Saints and before the Day of the Dead, it is important to think about hope . . .the feasts of All Saints and All Souls are "days of hope," he said. The virtue of "hope is like a bit of leaven that enlarges your soul. There are difficult moments in life, but with hope you go forward and keep your eyes on what awaits us. Today is a day of hope; our brothers and sisters are in the presence of God, and we, too, will be there in the Lord's arms if we follow the path of Jesus."

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel gives us another parable about prayer: the familiar story of the Pharisee and the tax collector. The Pharisee seems to do everything right: having kept the commandments performed his fasts, and tithed regularly, he goes to the temple area to give thanks to God. But he is, of course, all wrong. His very thanksgiving turns into a judgment on his fellow human beings, especially the tax collector whom he looks on with contempt. The tax collector, on the other hand, seems to do everything wrong: to begin, he is a tax collector, he keeps his distance in the temple area; and he does "not even raise his eyes to heaven." He beats his breast, acknowledges his sinfulness, and asks God for mercy. The point of the parable is clear: in approaching God, the only attitude to take is one of humble self-awareness. The only sins we can bring before him are our own.

As we continue to reflect on prayer, Jesus teaches us that the ones who exalt themselves will be humbled, and the ones who humble themselves will be exalted.

Sincerely,

Father Ed

We are looking for VOLUNTEERS to give out treats on HALLOWEEN
