SMALL GROUPS
Sessions begin week of
November 18, 2019
Sign-Up Sheets are at entrance to Church.

My dear Parishioners,

Our first reading and gospel continue to focus our attention on death and resurrection. The reading from 2 Maccabees gives us part of the tale of seven brothers and their mother who accepted death rather than renounce their faith.

This story is one of the few passages in the Hebrew Scriptures that reflect a strong belief in life after death. As the fourth brother insists, “It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him...”

The gospel passage makes it clear that Jesus believed in life after death. The Sadducees did not, which is why they challenged him in this episode. But he insists: “That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out ‘Lord,’ the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

Surveys show that many people today no longer believe in life after death, and that group includes some Catholics. This is a good month to reaffirm our belief in the resurrection. That may be done as powerfully by our actions as by our words. On Monday evening we honored those who have died in the past year.

Let us nourish our hope of us who are left behind, that our loved ones are still alive and waiting for us.

Did you notice our “new” Church bulletin?

Sincerely,

Father Ed
