DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

Next Sunday, December 23

at 11:45 a.m. (after the 11:00 a.m. Mass)

On Sunday, December 22, after the 11:00 a.m. Mass, we need volunteers to help bring boxes with decorations downstairs from the choir loft and to begin putting up our Christmas decorations.

Please join us!

My Dear Parishioners,

St. John the Baptist again takes center stage in St. Matthew's Gospel. In his person, John the Baptist demonstrates his rejection of the four things fallen human beings resort to instead of turning to God:

Possessions - John is a poor man living in the desert;

Pleasure - he subsists not on delicacies but a diet of locusts and honey;

Power - his unswayable power is not from the world but the Word;

Prestige - he eschews fine clothes and royal palaces for the honor of being the forerunner of Christ.

In his column in Catholic Philly.com, Archbishop Chaput writes, "If we ignore the poor, we will go to hell. . . More importantly though, the opposite is also true; The more we love the poor, the more fully human we become; the more generously we encounter the needy and serve those who suffer, the more we begin to experience the joy of heaven."

The Archbishop concludes, "The joy we seek at Christmas and throughout the year can't be had from things. It comes from the experience of love we share with God and other people.

In the Prayer after Communion, the priest says: that the heavenly food we receive has the power to cleanse us and make us ready for the coming feasts. We only have nine more days of Advent!

Sincerely,

Father Ed
