“May Jesus, who saved us not through any merit of our own but in order to demonstrate the immense goodness of the Father, make us merciful toward everyone.”

Pope Francis
Feast of Baptism of the Lord
January 13, 2019

Entrance Antiphon for Today’s Mass:

“After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered:

‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’”

Matthew 3:16-17

Individual admission tickets to the St. Mary Soirée are $100. Young professionals, ages 21 to 25, may purchase admission tickets for $75. Please make checks payable to St. Mary Interparochial School. Kindly reserve your tickets by

Spiritual Support for Addiction: Hope in Christ

You are not alone! The Church desires to be close to her children who are struggling with addiction and to bring them the healing power of Jesus Christ’s love. Many parishes around the Archdiocese are extending God’s merciful and loving hand to those who have an addiction as well as their families and loved ones. The Hope in Christ: Spiritual Support for Addiction webpage provides a central location for resources, ongoing support, events, and testimonies that are happening throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Visit Archphila.org/hope for new postings for Catholic resources available to you or a loved one.

Sacraments of Initiation for Children

Looking for all children who are in the 2nd grade (First Reconciliation and Holy Communion) and 7th grade (Confirmation) or in any grade in between that have not received First Reconciliation and Holy Communion . This includes catholic, public, private and home Schoolers. We offer a Parish Retreat for each Sacrament and if your child is not being catechized at a Catholic School or Religious Education Program, we will provide total catechesis and preparation for reception of the Sacraments. In some cases, parents can home school the child with assistance from the parish.

Please contact the Rectory and your information will be forwarded to Maryellen Carroll, the Director of Religious Education.

PUTTING THINGS AWAY—TODAY

Today after the 11:00 a.m. Mass, we will be putting away Christmas Decorations for another year. Please join us and lend a hand. We especially need helpers to carry boxes of decorations to the choir loft. Thank you.

Nourish for Caregivers Support Group

Nourish for Caregivers is a Christ-centered Catholic ministry that supports the practical, emotional & spiritual needs of family caregivers. Our monthly meetings are for anyone juggling the challenges of everyday life, health, career and caring for a loved one, whether it be a family member with disabilities, an ill or aging parent, spouse, friend or grandparent. Meetings are held monthly and are happening in various locations/times around the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. To find a group near you, visit phillyevang.org/nourish, or contact Aimee Gustitis at 610-724-8950 or aimeegustitis@outlook.com. Walk-ins are welcome.

My Dear Parishioners,

Have you ever wondered what Fr. Oliver does in Rome? One picture is worth a thousand words!

As we remember Jesus' baptism today, we also recall the mission Jesus accepted on that day. Saint Luke simply, eloquently describes that mission today in the Acts of the Apostles: "He went about doing good." From the moment he began to teach and preach about the reign of God, Jesus, who was God's good agent, set himself at odds with evil. His actions were not merely acts of mercy but an assault on all that was unholy, "for God was with him," as St. Luke attested.

In order to grasp the significance of Jesus' ministry, Christians have traditionally looked to the Isaian servant songs, the first of which constitutes today's first reading. There, the servant is described as one endowed with God's own spirit in order to bring forth justice for the nations. God's justice is wrought gently, carefully, lovingly. So also will the servant bring light and healing and freedom to all in need. The Gospels make it clear that the earliest believers understood Jesus in the light of the Isaian servant. From the moment of his baptism, when he was endowed by the Spirit and identified as God's Son and Servant, Jesus served God's purpose.

As we celebrate Jesus' baptism today and our own, let us also be renewed in our efforts to uphold God's justice and to be the light in someone else's darkness. As the Christmas season comes to an end today, I thank all who contributed to make our celebration so beautiful.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
