My Dear Parishioners,

We are now 26 days into the New Year. How are your resolutions working out? The YMCA reports that there was the usual huge swell in membership around the first of the month, but that now the number of people coming each day has fallen back to almost the number before the Christmas holidays. What is annually made obvious is that starting something new is easy, but sustaining it is difficult. What becomes even more obvious is how difficult it is to make changes in lifestyle.

If keeping just a few simple New Year's resolutions is hard for us, how much more, then should we appreciate how amazing it was for the disciples to walk away from the only life they had known! The disciples left behind family, occupations and possessions. How are we to respond to Jesus' call, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men?" In the gospel, we see four disciples completely start over in order to respond to his call. What are we willing to abandon this year to be better disciples? And, how long will we keep such a resolution?

Sincerely,

Father Ed
