HELP SAINT JOHN’S HOSPICE - COVID-19 Response

Dear Saint John’s Hospice Family,

We are incredibly grateful for the heart-warming response to our recent request for financial support during this critical time! The outpouring of support has been incredible and such a testament to the solidarity that we all share with Saint John’s Hospice. Please stand with us today! While we have reached our initial goal, your support can allow us to exceed it. In this moment of great need it is because of your generosity that we are able to continue providing meals to the men whom we serve.

As a result of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak and the closing of another shelter in our neighborhood, we need your help more than ever. Please make a gift today to help us provide expanded services at this critical time.

The number of people who need our help has greatly increased:

- Daily public lunch average has increased from 220 people per day to 320 people per day.
- Monday, Wednesday, Friday dinner has increased from 30 people per night to 80 people per night (123 people on Wednesday, 3/25).

For the safety of everyone we serve, we are providing our meals via carryout packages at our front door. We hope that by limiting crowds inside of our building, we will keep all of our residents, guests, and staff healthy.

Thank you for standing with Saint John’s Hospice and the men we serve!

PS We are counting on your support to make sure that everyone who comes to our door receives a meal.

Pope Francis'
Prayer to Virgin Mary for protection from coronavirus

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

During these uncertain times, Nourish for Caregivers will continue to foster community for caregivers in the privacy and safety of your own home through Nourish "House Calls". Our mission is to bring hope and encouragement to those who feel hopeless and helpless in the face of this viral epidemic. Caregivers may participate via land line, cell phone, or through the use of a computer/tablet device. We hope you will join us as well as share this information with other caregivers who may benefit from these shared experiences. Each call will last approximately one hour depending upon the number of participants.

"On this feast of Divine Mercy, the most beautiful message comes from Thomas, the disciple who arrived late; he was the only one missing. But the Lord waited for Thomas. Mercy does not abandon those who stay behind. Now, while we are looking forward to a slow and arduous recovery from the pandemic, there is a danger that we will forget those who are left behind. The risk is that we may then be struck by an even worse virus, that of selfish indifference. A virus spread by the thought that life is better if it is better for me, and that everything will be fine if it is fine for me. It begins there and ends up selecting one person over another, discarding the poor, and sacrificing those left behind on the altar of progress. The present pandemic, however, reminds us that there are no differences or borders between those who suffer. We are all frail, all equal, all precious. May we be profoundly shaken by what is happening all around us: the time has come to eliminate inequalities, to heal the injustice that is undermining the health of the entire human family! Let us learn from the early Christian community described in the Acts of the Apostles. It received mercy and lived with mercy: 'All who believed were together and had all things in common; and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, as any had need' (Acts 2:44-45). This is not some ideology: it is Christianity. "

-Pope Francis

Excerpt from Homily on

Divine Mercy Sunday 4.19.20

Dear Parishioners,

We often speak of “being on a journey” during Lent, drawing on images of Jesus’ journey to Calvary, walking the stations or praying the way of the cross. Our Easter Readings continue the theme of journey with strong images.

Today we pray in the psalm response “Lord, you will show us the path of life.” The psalmist is confident that God guides his steps; she knows God protects her from all danger, even death. God is the safety net providing sustenance and nourishment, refuge and security. In return, we respond with gladness and rejoicing, for we are protected on the path to follow God. God will only show us the way that will bring us life, a path where we experience the abounding joy of being in God’s very presence.

On such a path, the disciples experienced a burning in their hearts as they found themselves accompanied by the unrecognized Lord on their way to Emmaus. Their companion was the Christ, who not only set their hearts on fire with his words and teachings but also opened their eyes, leading them back to their community to proclaim the good news. Confident that God shows us the path of life; we have the same opportunity for proclamation and witness.

On Easter, Pope Francis’ Easter message before his blessing “urbi et orbi” (to the city and to the world):

“This is no magic formula that makes problems vanish,” the pope said. “No, the resurrection of Christ is not that. Instead, it is the victory of love over the root of evil, a victory that does not bypass suffering and death, but passes through them, opening a path in the abyss, transforming evil into good: this is the unique hallmark of the power of God.”

The risen Jesus, he said, came forth from the grave still bearing the marks of his crucifixion, he said, “Let us turn our gaze to him that he may heal the wounds of the afflicted humanity.”

Let us pray today for ears open to his word, eyes open to see his face in others, hearts open to his will for us.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
