St. Francis Home for Youth Needs Your Help!

A message from Deacon Anthony Willoughby: The youth at St Francis Home, while safe, are confined to their group homes to comply with social distancing. It is with great humility that I ask if you could help us to keep them active. I am humbly aware of the tough and troubling times that we are experiencing and this “ask” is not something I do lightly, but our youth are so important to me that I believe this will give them a sense of certainty in these uncertain times. Here are some of the items we need:

- Board games
- Videos
- Gift cards to procure them some special meals (McDonalds, Chick-fil-A, Wendy's, Burger King etc.' $5.00 dollar denominations).
- Coloring books, word spell, word finds, etc.
- Small electronics

Please mail requested items to:

Pope Francis' Prayer
to Virgin Mary

for protection from coronavirus

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

My dear Parishioners,

How profound is God's love and hospitality for his created beings! It can be stretched to make our lives end happily. God's hospitality empowers Jesus to fulfill the Father's wish to save his sons and daughters and bring them home. Jesus carried a wooden cross, died painfully nailed to it, rose from his tomb, saved and delivered his chosen people to his Father, and waits for those delivered to follow in his footsteps. Paul reminds his readers that this is their legacy. While they do not deserve any part of God's generous hospitality, this "newness of life" is given anyway, freely. The reward of eternal life comes to all in the same quiet, unassuming way that Elisha told his Shunem hostess that a son was her reward because of her warm and all-embracing hospitality.

This hospitality pours over Adam and Eve's descendants, homeless since their betrayal in the Garden. They are now made clean and welcomed into God's heavenly home, where a feast awaits at his table for all eternity.

With this in mind, Thomas was standing alone in the airport terminal wearing his University of Notre Dame sweatshirt and looking rather dejected. Another traveler, Kevin, walks by and says, "Go Fighting Irish!" Smiling, Kevin and Thomas exchange greetings and begin to talk. Kevin listens intently as Thomas tells him that he is stuck there without luggage and no place to stay. Kevin, without hesitating, invites Thomas to stay with him at his parents' home. Thomas is amazed that Kevin is so trusting. Kevin says, "You're my Notre Dame brother and that's enough." The two Notre Dame grads leave the airport to enjoy the hospitality of Kevin's family.

Just as Kevin trusted Thomas without knowing him, Jesus ask those redeemed to show their appreciation by carrying their crosses and serving with gracious hospitality their neighbors who walk with them as if each neighbor is Jesus.

Hospitality is love in action whether from God, Jesus, Elisha or Kevin. "What we do for the least of God's people, we do for Christ."

*Sincerely,
Father Ed*
