2020 MISSIONARY APPEAL

Support Catholic Missionaries like

Yarumal Missionaries

Mission Appeal Weekend is August 22/23

Because of COVID-19 our Missionary Speaker, Rev. Juan de Jesus Solorzano, mxy from the Yarumal Mission Society is unable to visit our parish. He is a missionary priest who has served people in Cambodia, Southeast Asia. He is originally from Colombia, South America. The goal of the Yarumal Mission Society, founded 90 years ago, is to witness the Gospel of Jesus Christ among people and cultures where the Gospel is not yet fully preached. We are present in Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Panama, Angola, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Cambodia, and Thailand, In order to carry out our pastoral programs and social projects, these missionaries depend very much on the generosity of the Christians from the parishes they visit. Please be generous in this Appeal.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION FOR TODAY:

“Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; For you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”

Hi everybody!

I hope you are all doing well and finding peace with God during these difficult times. My name is Jonathan Sechuk and I am a FOCUS Missionary! FOCUS was started at a small college in Kansas called Benedictine College in 1998 by Curtis Martin. The whole mission of FOCUS is to go to college campuses and spread the gospel to college students. About 85% of Catholics who do enter college leave the faith before the end of their four years. Just reading that makes people realize why we need the faith spread on the campuses!

I will be serving at Bridgewater State University in Bridgewater, Massachusetts! I am on a team with three other missionaries and we will be walking with the students and showing them what it is like to have God apart of their lives! We will run bible studies, leadership groups, mission trips, and serving the poor in the Massachusetts area. We will be taking part in the student’s lives by getting lunch with them going to sporting events or even playing sports with them. I feel called to this because when I was a freshman in college I was lost. I went to Temple University (just graduated!!!) and was in the dorms, on the club hockey team, and trying to find my group. It was until I went to the Newman Center at Temple where I found my group and ultimately, started taking my faith seriously. God wants me to reach out to those students who were in my position in my freshman year. The ones who are lost.

The one thing FOCUS wants us to do is fundraise our salary. They do offer us lots of benefits, being a non-profit, and this is one of the things they ask us to do. So if you would like to learn more about the mission and what I do on campus then you can contact me at 215-620-0434 or jonathan.sechuk@focus.org. If you would like to visit my page to read more about my story/donate then go to <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/jonathan-sechuk>. If you would like to read more about FOCUS then

God Bless,

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Matthew 13:44-52

My dear Parishioners,

Usually it does not take long for parishioners to decide what their pastor's favorite sermon topic is. For example, Father Smith seems to always talk about money as he persistently pleads with the people for bigger Sunday collections so he can pay the church's bills. Father Jones invariably talks about sexual sins and the need for doing penance. Father Grant chooses to give scholarly, technical explanations of the Sunday scripture readings with special emphasis on the original Hebrew and Greek vocabularies. Father Maloney tells a lot of jokes and funny stories. Father Tyler just reads and comments on the announcements in the parish Sunday bulletin. Father Parker, well, let's see... It's pretty hard to say what his favorite sermon topic is because, frankly, he rambles, rants and raves so much.

It should not be difficult for us to determine the favorite sermon topic of Jesus. In case we are undecided, today's gospel is an excellent example of the focus of Jesus' preaching. The central theme of his sermons is highlighted by the particular parables he presents. Each parable gives a concise comparison that is meant to describe what the kingdom of heaven is like. Thus, the heart of Jesus' preaching can be summed up in these four words:

THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

Jesus initiated this theme in his very first sermon which was remarkably short and simple. All he said was, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17). As he went around all of Galilee, teaching in area synagogues, Jesus proclaimed "the gospel of the kingdom" (Matthew 4:23). In his famous Sermon on the Mount, Jesus declared, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" and "Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3, 10). Over and over and over again—to the total of 51 times in Matthew's Gospel alone! - Jesus uses this favorite phrase of his.

The purpose and point of all these parables is to teach us that the kingdom which Jesus proclaimed and described is both a heavenly and an earthly reality. Jesus emphasized this essential mixture of divine and the human when he taught us to pray to our Father in heaven by saying, "Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven" (Matthew 6:10).

Sincerely,

Father Ed
