LIFE AND DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON PRAYER - USCCB

God of all life,

Help us to appreciate the great gift that is human life formed in your image, a reflection of your holiness.

Help us to recognize you in all whom you have created: children not yet born, families affected by poverty and war, people of different abilities, people from other lands, and all who are victims of hatred and racism.

Help us to bear witness to the dignity of all whom you have created, regardless of stage of life, or wealth, or ability, or color, or creed, for every person is fully equal in your loving eyes.

Share with us your holy knowledge that we are all your children, each bestowed with inherent dignity.

May your justice reign forever! Amen.

2020 MISSIONARY APPEAL

Support Catholic Missionaries like

Yarumal Missionaries

Mission Appeal Weekend is August 22/23

Because of COVID-19 our Missionary Speaker, Rev. Juan de Jesus Solorzano, mxy from the Yarumal Mission Society is unable to visit our parish. He is a missionary priest who has served people in Cambodia, Southeast Asia. He is originally from Colombia, South America. The goal of the Yarumal Mission Society, founded 90 years ago, is to witness the Gospel of Jesus Christ among people and cultures where the Gospel is not yet fully preached. We are present in Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Panama, Angola, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Cambodia, and Thailand, In order to carry out our pastoral programs and social projects, these missionaries depend very much on the generosity of the Christians from the parishes they visit. Please be generous in this Appeal.

"One does not live
on bread alone,
but on every word
that comes forth
from the mouth of God."

Matthew 4:4b

Hi everybody!

I hope you are all doing well and finding peace with God during these difficult times. My name is Jonathan Sechuk and I am a FOCUS Missionary! FOCUS was started at a small college in Kansas called Benedictine College in 1998 by Curtis Martin. The whole mission of FOCUS is to go to college campuses and spread the gospel to college students. About 85% of Catholics who do enter college leave the faith before the end of their four years. Just reading that makes people realize why we need the faith spread on the campuses!

I will be serving at Bridgewater State University in Bridgewater, Massachusetts! I am on a team with three other missionaries and we will be walking with the students and showing them what it is like to have God apart of their lives! We will run bible studies, leadership groups, mission trips, and serving the poor in the Massachusetts area. We will be taking part in the student's lives by getting lunch with them going to sporting events or even playing sports with them. I feel called to this because when I was a freshman in college I was lost. I went to Temple University (just graduated!!!) and was in the dorms, on the club hockey team, and trying to find my group. It was until I went to the Newman Center at Temple where I found my group and ultimately, started taking my faith seriously. God wants me to reach out to those students who were in my position in my freshman year. The ones who are lost.

The one thing FOCUS wants us to do is fundraise our salary. They do offer us lots of benefits, being a non-profit, and this is one of the things they ask us to do. So if you would like to learn more about the mission and what I do on campus then you can contact me at 215-620-0434 or jonathan.sechuk@focus.org. If you would like to visit my page to read more about my story/donate then go to <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/jonathan-sechuk>. If you would like to read more about FOCUS then

*The hand of the Lord
feeds us;
He answers
all our needs.*

My dear Parishioners,

Five thousand families flocked to see and hear this Man from Galilee. Some were sick. Others were curious. No doubt, a few of them didn't know exactly why they were there. They knew they were searching for something, but what?

The sun inched higher and higher in the sky, then began its descent to the horizon. The disciples were inclined to send the people away to fend for themselves, but Jesus had other plans. Without a lot of fanfare, He took bread and fish and blessed them. Then, without even attempting to sort out the true believers from those who were simply hungry for a miracle, He fed them all; fed them until they could eat no more. And out of that abundance, His disciples were reminded of the bountiful provision the heavenly Father bestows upon those who remain faithful to their call.

Our Church holds an embarrassment of spiritual riches, graces so abundant that even if we were to draw upon them every day, we could never exhaust them all.

And all around us, people grow hungrier and hungrier; hungry for truth; hungry for reassurance that God has not deserted them. Sometimes, they are simply hungry. In our hurry to get in and out and on with our lives, we may miss our opportunity to feed a hungry brother or sister in the name of the One who has nourished our souls with His very Body and Blood.

"Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and labor for that which does not satisfy?" God calls to us through the words of the prophet Isaiah.

If the prophet were with us here today, he might very well add, "Why are you in such a rush, when there are so many lonely people around you, people who need you to remind them of God's abundant love?"

So, how about it? What do you do when disaster hits? Think back to the days when we first understood the seriousness of the COVID-19 pandemic. The crisis quickly initiated wide-ranging readjustments. The values we chose to act on, whether consciously or not, let us to such varied responses as hoarding, denial, selflessness and heroic action. We cheered first responders as if they were as important as sports figures. Look around, there are lonely people all around—loved ones, neighbors and parishioners. How can you act as Jesus today?

To the uninitiated, the Catholic Church can be a strange and intimidating place.

Sincerely,

Father Ed
