LOVE
DOES NO
WRONG TO A
NEIGHBOR,
THEREFORE,
LOVE IS THE FULFILLMENT
OF THE LAW.
ROMANS 13:10

My dear Parishioners,

Today's readings respond to the enduring question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" All three Scripture readings focus on the Christian responsibility to correct a sister or brother when the need arises. Each reading lays out aspects of who, when and how in answering this provocative question.

In his Letter to the Romans, Paul names love as both the epitome and underpinning of every commandment. Love sometimes includes admonishing a loved one. Today the popular jargon is tough love. However, admonitions still require a love steeped in respect and reverence for the dignity and worth of each person.

An example of an admonition: Mom drinks too much. Her daily schedule has become erratic. She misses her medical appointments. She sleeps all hours of the day, and on the phone her voice seems slurred. Her family plans an intervention. The children begin by telling her how much they love her and then lead gently but firmly into what they are observing. They affirm her and name incidents of her behavior as signs of an illness. The session for mom and family is painful, but the well-being of mom is pivotal. It springs from a desire to heal and not to harm.

What this family did is not stress-free, but done with love and affection can produce favorable results. Without proper respect and expressed love, an intervention can generate bitterness and alienation.

For those who follow Jesus, love flows from the truth that all creation is made into the image and likeness of God. Didn't Jesus emphasize in his teaching that loving God first and neighbor second is the greatest commandment?

Paul reiterates this to the Romans: "Love does no evil on the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law." With Jesus and Paul's words aiming for the same goal, Christians are encouraged in all ways to support the welfare of one another.

As members of the body of Christ, believers have responsibility to help neighbors, especially those who seem stalled by their weakness. If this is overlooked for too long, it may lead to a moral and physical deterioration. It can happen at any time with peers, friends, family or co-workers.

The Scriptures carefully answer "yes" to the question of whether Christians are to be concerned about our neighbor's well-being. This admonition is done without vindictiveness and in a spirit of inviting the neighbor to full restoration in the community.

Sincerely,
Father Ed
